Our Value Proposition

Thos. Moser Cabinetmakers is a trusted producer of fine handcrafted solid wood furniture in business for almost 40 years. We employ 135 people, including over 60 craftspeople. Our world class furniture is found in homes, businesses and institutions nationwide. We work in sustainable, premium grade American hardwoods, and specialize in a hallmark oil finish which lends itself to long-life applications. Intended to last more than one lifetime, our furniture and case goods are of heirloom quality and are a sound, long term investment for our customers.

Manufacturing and Design

Thos. Moser Cabinetmakers manufactures in a state of the art 100K square foot woodworking shop in Auburn, Maine. We maintain the highest standards in furniture making. Our capabilities range from providing standard residential, office and library product, to crafting one-of-a-kind signature pieces, to large scale multi-million dollar projects. We are known for successfully blending the aesthetic beauty of solid wood with present-day technology to meet our customer's furniture requirements.

A Sustainable Resource

Senate Resolution 411 of August 5, 2010
(House Resolution 81)

Passed unanimously, “Resolved: The Senate recognizes that Unites States hardwoods are an abundant, sustainable, and legal resource under Unites States law; and urges that US hardwoods and products derived from US hardwoods should be given full consideration in any program to promote construction of environmentally preferable commercial, public or private buildings”
